

8. Celebrate the Joy of Charlotte's Web

Share Your Talents

Below are a list of opportunities to share your illustrations and writings with the Redlands community. Submit your work using the attached submission form. Submittals may be on display at the library or other city facilities, depending upon social distancing rules. Please submit or mail your work to A. K. Smiley Public Library, located at 125 W. Vine St., Redlands, by the following deadlines:

Deadline:

- | | |
|------------------|--|
| March 31 | Spider Drawing |
| April 30 | Write about your favorite character from Charlotte's Web and describe why the character was special to you. |
| May 31 | Agricultural Area Drawing |
| June 30 | Choose a character from Charlotte's Web and write a story from this character's perspective. |
| July 31 | Submit an art project that reflects Charlotte's Web |
| August 31 | Write a letter to E.B. White, the author. Tell him what you liked about Charlotte's Web and how his book moved you. |

Watch for More Updates by Visiting:

www.akspl.org/adultliteracy

An in-person or virtual celebration is planned for the fall of 2021. Keep checking the adult literacy website to learn more.