

There was a Stuffie Library Board meeting with Detroit the Lion and members of the Board.

Joey tried to help open up the safe. He needed to use a booster seat to reach!

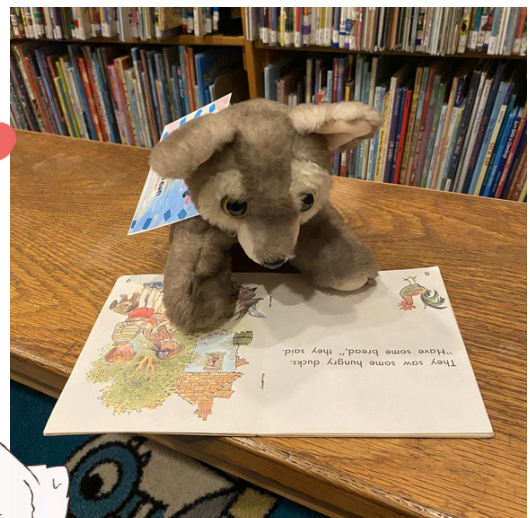

Reading, oh how we love to read!

Especially in a rocking chair!

My new friends read this book to Mr. Slug; now he wants to read it to us next!

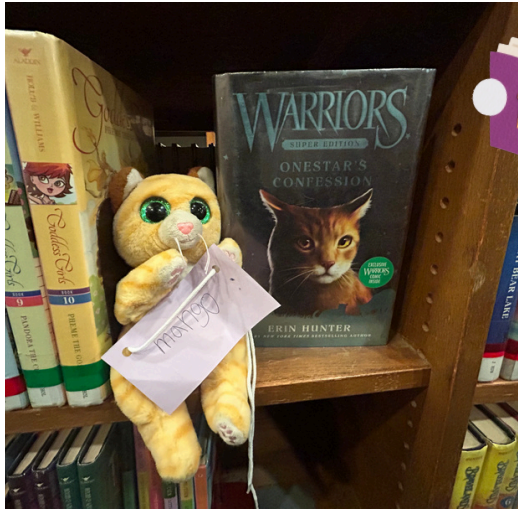

There are so many cool books and magazines to read at the library!

Reading with friends is the BEST!

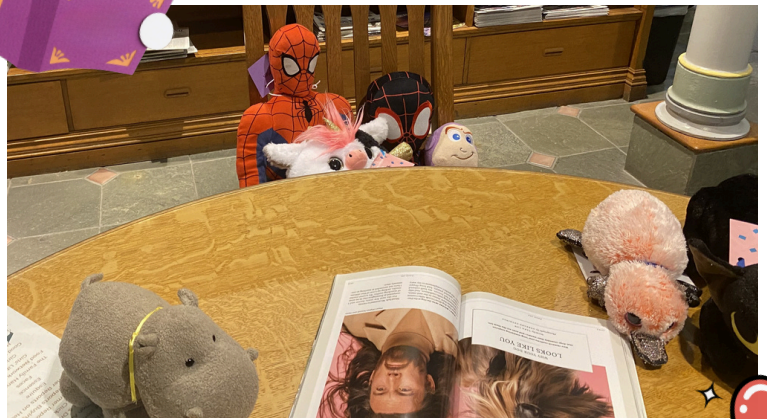

Reading in the Conservatory...

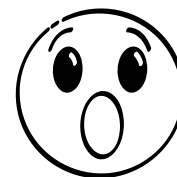

More books! More books!

AAAAAAAAAAHHHHH!
THESE BRAVE STUFFIES
LISTENED TO GHOST STORIES READ BY...
A GHOST!

Some friends joined a band and we got to sing Karaoke!

We found a book about Hip-Hop and other music too!

All this fun made us hungry...we were ready for snacks and videos...

The library
staff lounge is a lot of fun!

Some friends were lucky and got to have a real tea party!

After snack time, we had to go potty, so we waited in line ...

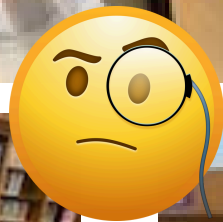

Researching at a slumber party? Yep! These stuffie scholars got right to work!

The Reference Department has a lot of resources available for everyone...even stuffies!

Research can be fun!
Just ask these stuffies!

There are shelves and shelves of new books for adults to read, just like in the Young Readers' Room.

How can we help you? These stuffies are ready to work at the circulation counter!

There's a fish tank with really cool fish swimming around!

There are a lot of pretty plants in the library.

Did you know there is a basement down there? We went downstairs to see it...

Checking out the Overflow section!

We thanked the Smiley twins for building such a beautiful library in Redlands.

There is so much to discover at the library...we each got to spin the globe!

You can take the elevator or the stairs to get to the Lower Level, just like we did!

After all the fun and games, only a couple of our new friends got hurt. They were SO brave and asked for help right away.

Sleepy time! zzzzz

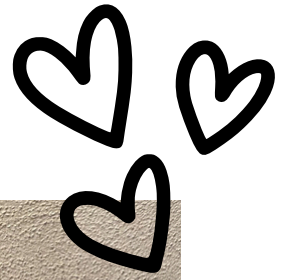

There was plenty of space for everyone to sleep...

There were even bunk beds!

Spa night! These stuffies made getting ready for bed extra special!

These sleep masks are really comfortable!

STUFFIE SLEEPOVER 2026!

We had the best time spending the night at the library!
